PRINCESS ANNE, Md., Oct. 19.—(P)—Responsibility for the lynching of George Armwood, negro who was dragged from the jail here last night and hanged from a tree near the town limits, was placed today by Governor Ritchie directed Judge entire year.

Governor Ritchie directed Judge Duer, a member of the bench of the first judicial district, and State's Attorney Robins "to take immediate action to set in motion the necessary legal machinery for the apprehension of those who were responsible for or who participated in the lunching."

Armwood, brought back here from Baltimore less than 17 hours earlier to face accusations of attacking an aged white womn, was wrenched from thep rotection of 25 state policemen last night and his body was finally left in a gasoline-soaked pyre on the main business corner.

The mob of more than a thousand men, women and youths, stopped temporarily by a tear gas attack from the state police, stormed the jail, battered down the heavy steel doors and, after ripping most of the clothes from his body and fastening a rope around his neck, dragged the ne

AMERICAN LEGION SPONSORS CARNIVAL HERE NEXT WEEK

At a meeting of the Johnson-Wiggins post of the American Legion, tentative plans were laid for a fall carnival to relieve the monotony of "Indian Summer." The plans call for the week of Oct. 23 and details will be given later. To assure the public that there will be no dull moments during the week the Legion announces that they have contracted for the appearance of the J. Crawford Francis Shows, who will bring their entire aggregation of shows, rides and free acts just as they were seen at the Red River Valley Fair at Sherman. Legion officials expressed themselves as highly pleased in being able to secure this famous company and are planning on a big week. The event will be publicited for miles around by the publicity department of the company.

This big company are to arrive here Sunday about noon, arriving on their fleet of 47 trucks besides the numerous passenger cars to transport the 300 people well party and handkerchief shower last Wednesday evening, October 11, at the home of Mr and Mrs. Robert George, in honor of Miss Ruth Brown, senior class president, who has moved with her parents to Corsicara.

Fortune telling, under the capable direction of two young ladies, was the main feature of the evening's entertainment. After a number of races and contests had been enjoyed by the guests, Miss Brown was presented with handkerchiefs from the members of the junior and senior classes.

Refreshments, consisting of fruit punch, cookies and candies, were served to thirty guests, who had gathered to hid Miss Brown farewell. Miss Brown had been elected president of the senior class in September and it was with deep regret that the members of these two classes had to see her leave.

The following taken from a recent issue of the Madisonville Meteor concerning the appointment of W. L. David as county agent will be of interest here:

"Mr. W. L. David of Corsicana, has been appointed by the Commissioners Court as county agent to succeed B. F. Vance who recently resigned to accept similar work in Young county.

"Mr. David comes to us well recommended and we extend to him and his good wife and baby a most cordial welcome to our city and county. Mr. David is a young man, full of ambition and energy and if our farmers keep up their usual improvements on the farms of Madison county he has come to a place where he can spend a lot of this extra energy.

"We commend Mr. David to the people of Madison county and to the citizenship of Madisonville and hope they will find their stay with us both pleasant and profitable."

Offerings were not particularly heavy but there was little demand, with December selling off to 9.06 and May to 17.40 right after the call or about 9 to 10 points 'net lower.

The decline was checked at this level gy buying af July through byokers with Wall street connections. There seemed also to be a little more trade and local buying. December rallied to 9.17 and May 10.48, or back to about yesterday's closing quotations.

At the end of the first half hour, December was holding around 9.10 and May 945, or about 5 to 6 points net lower. 5,971 May 9.45, or about 5 to 6 points net lower.

The market steaded slightly later in the west and stock markets, while trade demand seemed to be a little morn in evidence. According to some of the local brokers, more orders were being received to fix prices at limits only in the South, tennral business remained quiet, however, and the market at mudden was was dull with Docember selling around 9.14 and May 9.47, or about 2 to 3 points net lower.
